HIS ATTITUDE A SURPRISE

To the Programme Committee of the Trust Conference—Didn't Want the Impression to Go Out That It Was a Joint Debate—Mr. Cookran's Address Before the Conference.

THAT no one remedy can contain the elements necessary to cure all diseases is a fact well known to everyone.
Dr. Miles' System of Restorative Remedies consists of seven distinctively different preparations, each for its own purpose.

Mrs. L. C. Bramley, of Henry St., St. Catharines, Ontario, writes: "For years I suffered from extreme nervousness and annoying constipation, developing into palpitation and weakness of the heart. I was unable to sleep, suffered much from headache, pain in my left side, palpitation and a constant feeling of weakness and prostration. I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills and the Anti-Pain Pills to relieve sudden paroxysms of pain and headache. I soon felt much improved and the pains and aches and weariness left me. I then took Dr. Miles' Restorative Tonic and am now restored to my former good health."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address,

COCKRAN'S SPEECH

Pays Compliments to Labor and Agricultural Orators.The chairman introduced Mr. Cook-ran, who spoke in part as follows:

We all covet strength and admire it. We look at the marvelous muscular development of a Sandow with envy and straightaway resolve to buy a pair of dumbbells and get strong, as if the secret of strength lay in muscles. Strength begins in the stomach. It begins there because the strength elements are manufactured, and from there they are distributed to blood, bone, brain, muscle and nerve. If you want to begin to be strong, start with the stomach. Put the digestive and nutritive organs and blood making glands in a perfect working order. That is the foundation of strength. Exercise puts on the superstructure of development.To establish the stomach and the digestive and nutritive functions in perfect health, there is no medicine so sure and so satisfactory as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, enriches the blood, nourishes the nerves, and regulates the functions of every vital organ of the body."About twelve years ago I was suddenly taken with a pain in the pit of the stomach which was so violent I could not walk straight," writes O. S.

Copenhaver, Esq., of Mount Union, Huntington Co., Pa. (Box 222). "It would grow more severe until it caused waterbrash and vomiting of a slimy yellow water. I consulted a physician and he told me I had a form of dyspepsia and treated me for about six months with but little benefit.
I still kept getting so weak I could scarcely walk.
I then tried another physician and he told me my liver was out of order and that I had indigestion. He gave me a treatment and I got some relief but only for a short time. I then took using several widely advertised patent medicines, but received no more than temporary relief while using. I then tried Dr. Pierce's medicines, using his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' his 'Favorite Prescription' and the 'Pleasant Pillars,' and in two months' time I was feeling better than I had for years before. I can truthfully say Dr. Pierce's medicines did me more good than any I had ever taken."Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice, top-edges, fully illustrated, is sent free on receipt of postage stamps (cost of mailing only) for paper edition, or 31 stamps for cloth edition. Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no person who could have listened to the papers which have been read from this platform during the last three days and doubt for a minute that the object of this gathering was an honest search for truth. [Applause.] I think the country is to be congratulated on some of the papers which were contributed to this discussion; notably those that came from the representatives of labor organizations and of the national grange. [Applause.] Indeed, as I listen to the conceptions of economic law which mark every address to which I listen, delivered by representatives of organized labor, I become convinced that the laborers who spoke to us understood these laws much better than their employers; indeed, I believe that some recent events in our history would have been impossible if both sides of these labor controversies understood the economic laws governing the relation of producers to consumers as well as one side showed that it understood them this very day.

Now, the precise question which we have been called to consider is the effect on the general prosperity of the community of combinations, whether of capital or of labor. I shall define prosperity as an abundance of commodities fairly distributed among those who produce them.

Now, this is not a statement of true conditions, separate and distinct, but rather a statement of two aspects of one difference. For, my friends, I hope to establish before I get through, that there cannot be abundant production of commodities without an extensive distribution of them in the form of wages in a country wherein prosperity is based on freedom. But whether this distribution is as effective and complete as we might wish, we can defer consideration of that question for a moment and we can all agree that there cannot be any distribution if there is not production; and that there cannot be an extensive distribution unless there is an abundant production. We must have commodities to distribute before we can distribute them in the form of wages or of profits. If this definition of prosperity be correct, it is perfectly plain that there is no reason why a sensible man should grow excited, either as to approval or resentment, at a combination, merely as such. A combination may be good or bad, according to its effect.It will be idle to say that some improve, that some raise prices and some deprecate them, if we did not prescribe some test by which we could distinguish between the two. Now, ladies and gentlemen, I think it is a simple one, perfectly clear. The test is to ascertain whether the combination of capital flourishes through government aid or without it, for, my friends, you must see that any industrial enterprise which dominates the market without aid from the government must do so through cheapening the product, or, as it is commonly called, by under-selling competitors. An industry, to profit, must accomplish that result by increasing the volume of its production. On the other hand, an industry which dominates the market by the favor of government, direct or indirect, cannot, in the nature of things, be forced to cheapen prices, because, if it could dominate the market by under-selling competitors in an open field without favor, it would not need the government favor. The interference of the government would be an injury, and not a benefit to it. An industry, or a combination of capital, or anything you may choose to call it, that dominates a market through a restricted competition that delivers the consumer to it on its own terms necessarily depends upon a narrow output and large profits, extorted, not from the excellence of its service, but from the helplessness of those with whom it deals.

Government Interference.

Now there are three ways in which the government interferes in the trade of individuals in this country, one is by patent laws. . . . The other means by which the government interferes is by tariff. Now, I believe that every person can concede, whether he believes in high tariff or free trade, that so far as trusts are concerned the tariff operates to favor them in this way and in this way only. It operates to restrict competition in the production of any article, to those engaged in it in this country. But if a trust or combination is to be formed, manifestly it aids the enterprise where the field of competition is originally limited. Under a condition of free trade every article which is produced is exposed to the competition of the whole world. If you rely upon the combination to suppress competition manifestly it is easier to make a combination between the producers in one country than in all countries and to that extent the tariff favors.There is still a third and serious question with which I think we can deal and which I believe is vastly more extensive in its results than this tariff in favor of trusts. And I refer to those favors which are extended to certain industries or great corporations enjoying government franchises, which are none the less government agencies because their stock is owned by private individuals. And here we are face to face with a serious difficulty. First, I must assume it a serious difficulty because it is almost impossible to describe it. It is surrounded by secret. That it is existing and does exist everybody believes. But for the purposes of philosophical discussion it is impossible to try to follow that which you cannot even fully describe, and the worst feature, therefore, of this outrage which is perpetrated against a certain class of the community is that it is shrouded in mystery.

But, my friends, you must remember that no person can enjoy a favor at the hands of any company enjoying a public franchise except at the expense of another. It is true of every instance where government favors an individual. An officer of a corporation granting a special favor to any person who has a right to use that possession on equal terms with everybody else, ought to be held guilty of a serious felony.

No corporation has a right to secrecy in the discharge of its duties. Whenever any person seeks to lure you up a dark alleyway on the pretense that he is going to serve you, do not parlay with him a moment—he is a confidence man. Call a policeman if you want to save your property or your character.

No corporation anxious to perform honest services to the public and its stockholders will seek secrecy or will insist on it.

It is the cloak behind which all frauds are perpetrated.

My friends, these are my suggestions: Publicity for corporate mismanagement; prohibition under penalties for special favors; right of action against any corporation whose service is suspended, except an absolute defense is proved that it was at all times ready to discuss with its employees questions at issue between them, by agencies of their selection.

BURNED TO DEATH

Three Men Cremated in a Freight Wreck in Nebraska.

Nebraska City, Neb., Sept. 16.—A freight train on the Missouri Pacific yesterday ran on a bridge which was on fire, eight miles south of this city. The bridge gave way and the engine, followed by 20 cars, plunged into the ditch. Engineer Gilliam, brakeman Foster and fireman Miller Rouse were burned to death in the wreck.

Vice President Hobart.

New York, Sept. 16.—A special from Long Branch, N. J., to The Press says: Vice President Hobart was expected to leave Norman Hurst, his summer home, yesterday for Paterson, but his health would not permit. The vice president accordingly postponed his departure until next week.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY

One of the Cuban War Heroes Receives an Assignment.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Some time ago Admiral Schley applied to the navy department for sea service. At present he is head of the retiring board. The navy department has now granted the request and has notified him to hold himself in readiness to command the South Atlantic station. The department is about to take steps to make the command commensurate with his rank.

by increasing considerably the number of vessels on the station. The Cincinnati probably will go there. The Detroit is already on her way to join, and the Marblehead is likely to be attached. Altogether there will be five or six ships on the station when the quota is filled.

It is said at the department that with a threatened war in South Africa, which is part of the station, and the disturbed condition in South and Central America, the South Atlantic command is likely to become an important one in the near future.

DREYFUS' APPEAL

To Be Withdrawn From Court of Revision.

London, Sept. 16.—M. De Biowitz, the Paris correspondent of The Times, says: Captain Dreyfus will shortly withdraw his appeal for a revision of the Rennes trial, which will leave the ground clear for the government to take immediate steps to pardon him.

The pardon will not annul the civil and military consequences of the verdict and he will therefore no longer belong to the army.

"There is nothing, however, to prevent him from applying to the court of cassation to quash the Rennes trial whenever the new fact required by law is produced. When liberated he will settle in the south of France, as the members of his family do not wish to expose him to such demonstrations of sympathy abroad as might be expected against him by his adversaries at home."

Probably a Deathbed Marriage.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 16.—Dalla Hicks of Indianapolis, the baggage woman who was badly injured in Sunday's wreck, and is now in an alarming condition at St. Stephens' Hospital, this city, has been married to Anna Dryscoll of Indianapolis. The ceremony was performed at the hospital by Rev. A. G. Neal. There is practically no hope of Hicks' recovery. He was a widower. His age is 61, and his wife is about 40.

Pensions For Veterans.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Pensions have been granted to Indians as follows: Relesne—Jacob F. IMMINENCE OF WAR

London Papers Regard the Transvaal Crisis as Having Reached Acute Stage.

SEVEN-YEAR FRANCHISE

Said to Be Adhered to by the Boers In Their Reply to Chamberlain and Boldly Stand For the London Convention—Military Preparations Continue in South Africa.

London, Sept. 16.—A special dispatch from Pretoria says: "The Transvaal's reply will be on the following lines: The Transvaal adheres to the seven years franchise law, but is willing to consider and, if necessary, to adopt any suggestions Great Britain may make with regard to the working of the law."

"In regard to the other points of Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch, the Transvaal boldly stands by the London convention. It is said that the reply is couched in polite terms."

"State Secretary Reitz, in the course of an interview today, expressed some doubt as to whether any alteration would be made in the existing franchise law, but said he believed a way should and could be found to establish an arbitration court. As to suzerainty, the least said the soonest mended, remarked the state secretary."

In the forecasts of President Kruger's reply there is undoubtedly a large basis of truth which seems to bring the dispute within a measurable distance of war.

Last evening the press association issued a curious statement to the effect that as soon as the garrison in Natal had been sufficiently strengthened, the Transvaal government would be called upon to accept a new convention, already drafted, which, while guaranteeing the integrity of the Transvaal state, provides for the demolition of the forts and limits the armed force of the Transvaal to a number deemed sufficient to maintain internal order.

According to the press association the convention will demand that the diplomatic agencies be suppressed and the judiciary be made independent of the executive.

The morning paper editorials regard the crisis as having reached its most acute phase. The Daily News says: "We refuse to believe that President Kruger is so foolish as to reject Mr. Chamberlain's moderate demands."

The Daily Chronicle, which appeals again to Mr. Kruger "to accept while it is yet time, and before England's terms become harder," says: "A refusal of the present terms will involve the ruin of the state over which President Kruger presides. The British government have played their first and second moves in the game, and must perform play the third and then the fourth. If Mr. Kruger haggles, the sinister conditions in South Africa will grow worse until a catastrophe is reached."

Other papers talk of the imminence of war, and all the dispatches from South Africa continue to describe the military preparations of both sides.

The Pretoria correspondent of The Times, in his forecast of the Transvaal reply, declares that the Boers will lay stress upon the 7-year franchise law, though offering to consider British suggestions as to its working, and for the rest take their stand upon the London convention.

The Times says: "We cannot believe that President Kruger will reject the latest proposals of the government and we would remind him that even Mr. Morley has intimated the 5-year franchise and urged him to accept the Cape Town conference."

It is understood that a cabinet council will be summoned as soon as the Transvaal's reply is received.

The Pretoria correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, telegraphing yesterday, said: "The situation has become extremely grave. The material changes in the draft of the reply delivered to Mr. Greene today are due to representations from Bloemfontein and the disposition of the veldsrads."

Are Repenting.

Manchester, Sept. 16.—The Right Hon. John Morley, Liberal, member of parliament for Montroseburgh, while addressing a peace meeting in this city last night, at which a son of the late John Bright, the distinguished British statesman and friend of peace, presided, was frequently interrupted by cries of "Majuba Hill," and other anti-Boer demonstrations. In retorting to the interruptions, Mr. Morley said: "A year or two ago the United States saw only one aspect of war; and what are they doing today? They are repenting. They have their yellow press and we have our yellow press. If I am asked to speak in this hall a year or two later, I shall find those who now oppose me repenting also."

Seven-Year Franchise.

Johannesburg, Sept. 16.—The Eastern Star of Johannesburg asserts that a martial law proclamation is being printed. It is reported here that the reply of the Transvaal government to the British note will suggest a 7-year franchise.

Severe Penalties.

Cape Town, Sept. 16.—The British high commissioner, Sir Alfred Milner, has issued a proclamation prescribing severe penalties for inciting the natives of Basutoland and other districts to rebellion.

United States Treasury.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $288,681,222; gold reserve, $288,617,012.

London, Ky., Sept. 16.—G. W. Purcell, member of the national board of United Mine Workers, was arrested yesterday on a warrant by the operators of the seven mines now on strike at Altamont and Pittsburg, Ky., charging him with inducing the miners to strike while under contract. WAWASEE COTTAGERS

Proposition to Locate a Beer Garden Near the Lake Causes Excitement.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 16.—The cottagers at Lake Wawasee are greatly excited over a proposition to locate a beer garden at the summer resort. Mr. Woffler of Garrett and Mr. Jones of Union City have leased two acres of ground just east of the Jones hotel, and propose to erect thereon a beer garden and the usual accompaniments. This location is so close to the most fashionable cottages that its presence cannot be regarded in any other light than that of a nuisance, and every arrangement is made for a determined fight against the innovation. W. H. Hoops of Chicago, a wealthy cottager, who is leading the opposition fight, is making arrangements for an aggressive campaign.

WILL GO TO IMPERARRAH

Rev. R. A. Morrison to Do Missionary Duty in Africa.

Huntington, Ind., Sept. 16.—The board of missions of the radical branch of the United Brethren church has appointed Rev. R. A. Morrison of the College Park church, this city, a missionary to the Imperarrah country, in Africa. The center of the district is Danville, near the west coast, 150 miles from Freetown. Rev. Morrison will start for his field next month. A week ago the White River conference appointed Rev. Morrison to the pastorate of the College Park church, and he was barely settled in this city. His wife and two children will continue to reside here at least for a year, Mrs. Morrison being a student in the Central college.

PHYSICIANS PUZZLED

Two Cases of Unconsciousness at Portland of an Unusual Nature.

Portland, Ind., Sept. 16.—Two cases are puzzling the physicians of this county. Mrs. Isaac Valentine, while picking an apple from a tree on Sunday last, fell, since which time she has been unconscious.

Mrs. Lizzie Spahr, 70 years old, several days ago placed the noon meal on the stove to cook, after which she went to an adjoining room, wrapped a quilt around her and lay down on the floor, becoming unconscious. She remains in that condition.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Henry E. Robinson of this city was run over by a train at Potosky, Mich., yesterday afternoon and sustained, what the attending physician says, are fatal injuries. Her two daughters, Mrs. F. C. Vaughn and Mrs. Harry Gennett, are with her and her husband and two sons are enroute on a special train. Mrs. Robinson is one of the best known society women of this city.

Lots of room for all the masses, Seymour welcomes you with pleasure. On the twenty-fifth of September, In this year of ninety-nine We'll unfurl our street fair banner And 'twill wave all 'long the line.

One day since the beginning of the present term of court a case involving the killing of a much respected dog was on trial. The purpose was to establish and fix the responsibility where it belonged, for the dog was highly regarded by his master. When the owner of his late dogship was on the witness stand he was asked to state the kind of a dog this was. "Well," he replied, "he was a hound." "Was he a full-blooded hound?" "No, he was only half hound" the witness said. "Well, what was the other half?" "Why, the other half was just dog."

A few days ago the telephone wires got badly mixed up by some means and for a time there was a great confusion of voices, much to the annoyance of some of the patrons. One of our druggists experienced no little difficulty in taking off orders, as the following copy of one of his efforts will show:

Ting-a-ling, ting-a-ling ting-a-ling! "Hello!" "Is this — Pharmacy?" "Yes, m."

"Send me 10 cents worth of quinine, and—"

"Bur-r-r-r."

"Southern Indiana Depot?" "Yes, what will you have?"

"A box of good liver pills, and—"

"Give me Dick Coals' White office."

"Hello."

"Hello, say that hen you sent me is a rooster and we don't want it."

"Five cents worth of mustard, and—"

"Bur-r-r-r."

"What time does the 8:40 train go?"

"Send me a ton of coal."

"I want a hundred pounds of ice-right away."

"A bottle of cough syrup—"

"Where was the fire last night?"

"Come home at once; the baby has swallowed the stove hook."

"Bur-r-r-r."

"And three seidlitiz powders."

"Give me Brownstown."

"Give me Azalia."

A voice: "Say, take this telephone, too, and go to Heltonsville with it."

"Did you understand my order, Mr. —?"

"Easily enough; and the goods are already on the way."

"Thanks. Goodbye."

"Goodbye."

And thus it went all day, until late in the afternoon, when it was discovered that one of the main wires had sprung a leak and a large amount of electric fluid had escaped. Coney Heuser soon had the opening repaired and everything has been running smoothly ever since.

It Is Tenacious.

Nothing in the world is more tenacious than newspaper circulation. An old newspaper seldom loses its circulation through competition. If others get circulation, it is usually not at the expense of an old newspaper, but at the expense of the reading public. If they get business, it is not at the expense of an old established paper's rates, but at the expense of business man who pay twice, or something like it, for the same thing, that is for the same or almost the same circulation.—Quebec Daily Telegraph.

Value of Advertising.

The value of newspaper advertising has received a number of striking illustrations in New York during the past half year. An observer notes the fact that three or four dry goods houses went into liquidation in the winter were the only ones of the great department stores that never advertised in the newspapers. On the other hand, the great advertisers have all enjoyed great prosperity, says the Bangor Journal. One of these which it was expected would fail, came out $600,000 ahead on the year's business. Only bold advertising carried it over the rocks which threatened. The results of wise advertising are highly satisfactory to those who spend their money in this way. One New York firm that had a new article to put on the market last winter and spent $100,000 in newspaper advertising reported later that it was compelled to refuse to take any new business. The orders fairly swamped the house, though it had character and ample capital. These instances of business sagacity are well worth the attention of the business world. Intelligent newspaper advertising always brings better returns than any other forms of advertising. Experience has taught all of our most successful merchants that it is necessary to keep in touch with the public, and the only practicable means is the newspaper.—Louisville Dispatch.

"A Mixed Affair", a brilliant farce comedy, will be at the Opera House next Tuesday. If you want to laugh go, for it is one of the funniest shows on the road. His Life was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W. P. Peter's drug store. SATURDAY, SEPT. 16, 1899.

SEYMOUR Street Fair September 25 to 30.

FROM every direction comes the word that large delegations are coming to our Street Fair. They have been here before and want to come again.

THE Columbus Democrat is not for Tom Taggart for governor whether he is re-elected mayor or not. It has declared for Shively and carries his name at the head of the editorial column along with Billy Everoad and Billie Bryan.

IT SEEMS that the hold of the hoodlums in Shelby county has been loosened by the county council. The county officers estimates or the amount they asked to have appropriated, footed up $104,408. The amount allowed is $40,483.50. Big reduction and one not appreciated by George Ray and his crowd.

PREPARATIONS for the Seymour Street Fair go merrily on. Next week will witness the erection of many booths and the completion of the stages. In the mean time the electric light company will be busy putting up the hundreds of extralights that will be "turned on" during the week. The premium committee has every assurance that the exhibits will be larger and better than ever before.

THE filing of the damage suits by Mrs. Lulu C. Jenkins is attracting wide attention and again giving much publicity to the Ripley county lynching. Mrs. Jenkins' husband was one of the five men taken from the jail at Versailles and lynched and she now brings three suits in the United States court to recover damages. She is apparently prepared to make a strong fight. Since the lynching in Ripley county and the outrageous murder of Marion Tyler at Scottsburg public sentiment has been rapidly increasing in the state against mob violence, until now, with the new law in force, mobs will be less frequent in Indiana.

Perry's Big Guns.

Commodore Perry had not yet electrified a grateful nation with his immortal message, "We have met the enemy, and they are ours." While the battle was in progress the sound of the guns was heard at Cleveland, about 60 miles away in a direct line over the water. The few settlers there were expecting the battle and listened with intense interest. Finally the sounds ceased. They waited for a renewal. None came; the lull was painful. Then they knew the battle was over; but the result, all that was the point. One old fellow, who had been lying flat with his ear to the ground, soon settled that point. Springing up he clapped his hands and shouted: "Thank God! They are whipped! They are whipped!"

"How do you know?" the others inquired.

"I heard the big guns last!" Perry's guns were the heaviest.—Buckeye.

The Fifth Feminine Age.

Until a few days ago I had always supposed that there were but four ages in a woman's life—the young, the still young, the well preserved and the elderly—but a man I know has added to my knowledge a fifth age. It comes in somewhere between the still young and the well preserved. I imagine. I said to him maliciously:

"How old is Mrs. Blank? Is she a young woman?"

"Not exactly," he made answer. "She's well, she's at the age when a woman always tells you, when she introduces her eldest son to you, that she was married ridiculously young."

—Washington Post.

His View of It.

A little boy had been sent to the dairy to get some eggs, and on his way back he dropped the basket containing them.

"How many did you break?" asked his mother.

"Oh, I didn't break any," he replied, "but the shells came off some of them."

WAR AND MATRIMONY.

Cupid Is Much the Busiest in Times of Peace and Prosperity.

"There is a close connection between marriage and the price of wheat, beef, pork, beans, corn and other things which go to make up the main portion of human food," writes Professor D. R. McNally of "The American Girl's Chances of Marriage," in The Ladies' Home Journal. "As the prices of these commodities go up the number of marriages goes down. From 1851 to 1854 times were good, food was cheap, and the marriage rate went up. Between 1855 and 1859 there was great depression of trade, and in 1858 the marriage rate went down to 17 per 1,000. The years from 1873 to 1879 form another period of depression. Factories were closed and manufacturers of every kind suffered severely. In one year, at least, crops were short and the prices of food were high. The result was immediately seen in matrimony, for in 1874 the number of marriages went down from 21 per 1,000 of the population to 18, and in 1876 and the following two years declined to 15 per 1,000—a tremendous falling off from 26 per 1,000, the figure attained in 1854, which was the banner year in the state of Massachusetts for matrimony.

"Almost as unfavorable as that of hard times is the influence of war upon matrimony. Whenever Mars is in the ascendant Cupid's stock goes down. During the civil war the number of marriages in this country fell off from 20 per 1,000 of population to 17 per 1,000, and immediately after the civil war was ended, in 1865, the number rose to 22 per 1,000, declining in 1869 to 21. The woman who is looking for a husband has a better chance of getting one just before or just after a war than at any other time."

Fame Abroad.

This week's issue of the Chicago Dry Goods Reporter gives an extended article on street fairs in general and the Seymour street fair in particular. It is illustrated with five different views that look quite familiar. There is a view of South Chestnut street, one of Johnson's corn booth, another of the Gold Mine booth, another of the Seymour Furniture Company's building and booth, and of one of the stages. The article on street fairs is taken from George Clark's article published in our street fair book last year. Of the Seymour street fair the Dry Goods Reporter says: "The Seymour free street fair is quite well known throughout the West on account of the novel and original lines on which it is conducted."

Mistaken Identity.

This morning some bones were found under one of the houses being moved from Cincinnati avenue and for a time it was thought they were part of a human skeleton. But later on closer examination it was found that a man constructed on a frame work built out of such bones would be rather odd in appearance and might be taken for some lower animal, so the idea of a mysterious death was soon abandoned.

On Thursday during the street fair a wedding will take place on the stage in front of the House Furnishing Company's store, Frank Voss, manager. Elder Thomas Jones will officiate. Detail report later.

Will be a special Dewey number; and in order that it may be abroad to greet the Admiral at his return home from Manila, it will be published on September 27th, three days earlier than the usual time of issue. It will have a special Dewey cover, drawn by C. L. Hinton and C. D. Graves. It will open with a fine Dewey portrait, and an article by Governor Theodore Roosevelt, explaining, from the author's personal knowledge as Assistant Secretary of the Navy at the time, how Dewey came to be assigned to command the Asiatic Squadron and what the Navy Department hoped for. Another Dewey feature will be an article by Mr. Joseph L. Stickney, describing the Admiral as Mr. Stickney saw him and talked with him almost daily during his recent homeward voyage through the Mediterranean. Mr. Stickney was formerly in the navy himself; he is now a staff correspondent of the Chicago Record, and stood beside Dewey on the bridge of the "Olympia" throughout the fight at Manila Bay.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. I now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tireless tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skilled physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Druggists sell Large Bottles for $1.00.

Beautiful Indian Springs.

This property has lately been secured by the Southern Indiana Hotel Co. The old hotel has been demolished and a new one is now in course of erection. This will be a magnificent structure with all modern improvements; but will not be ready this season.

There has always been more or less excursion business and parties who go there to enjoy the water. The dance hall, spring house, summer pavilion, bowling alley and club house have been left standing and may be used by excursionists and picnic parties.

To accommodate this business the Southern Indiana Railway will put in rates for excursion parties and parties; and has also arranged special Sunday train schedule, giving patrons along the entire length of the line an opportunity to spend the day at the Springs and return here the same evening.

Grain-O Brings Relief.

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment.

From Extreme Nervousness. (W. J. BRYAN DECLINED)

Nebraska Orator Refused to Speak With W. Bourke Cockran at Chicago.

HIS ATTITUDE A SURPRISE

To the Programme Committee of the Trust Conference—Didn't Want the Impression to Go Out That It Was a Joint Debate—Mr. Cockran's Address Before the Conference.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—The exciting joint debate looked for last night between William J. Bryan and Bourke Cockran on trusts did not take place. Central Music hall was packed with an eager audience, but the people present had to content themselves without the oratory of the famous Nebraskan, who, however, occupied a seat on the platform.

Mr. Bryan reached Central Music hall early in the evening. He went directly to a room upstairs, where he was greeted by Chairman Franklin Head, Congressman Gaines, Ralph M. Bailey and other members of the programme committee of the civic federation conference on trusts. Mr. Bryan surprised the committee by declining to speak at last night's session with W. Bourke Cockran, in accordance with the programme previously arranged. Mr. Bryan explained that he did not wish to let the impression go out that he was to enter into a debate with Mr. Cockran. For that reason he said he would not speak with Mr. Cockran at the same session.

Mr. Cockran was sent for and he and Mr. Bryan discussed the situation. The committee withdrew to allow the two orators to settle the dispute among themselves. Mr. Bryan asserted that he never said he would follow Mr. Cockran with an address on the same evening. If the committee got that impression from the conversation he had with them over the long distance telephone Thursday, he said they misunderstood him. Mr. Cockran wanted to talk at the same session with the noted Nebraskan and offered to flip a coin to determine who should have the privilege of delivering the closing address.

Mr. Bryan would not accept this proposition. Mr. Cockran then agreed to appear at any time the committee desired. The programme was then changed to meet Mr. Bryan's wishes. Mr. Bryan said he was anxious to address the conference and repeated that his only reason for changing the programme was to avoid any indication of a public debate with Mr. Cockran.

Though disappointed in failing to see such a spectacle as Bryan and Cockran pitted against each other, the audience nevertheless enjoyed a rare treat as Mr. Cockran was at his best and his speech was punctuated with frequent and prolonged applause.

COCKRAN'S SPEECH
The chairman introduced Mr. Cockran, who spoke in part as follows:

We all covet strength and admire it. We look at the marvelous muscular development of a Sandow with envy and straightway resolve to buy a pair of dumb bells and get strong, as if the secret of strength lay in muscles.

Strength begins in the stomach. It begins there because there the strength elements are manufactured, and from there they are distributed to blood, bone, brain, muscle and nerve. If you want to begin to get strong, start with the stomach. Put the digestive and nutritive organs and blood making glands in perfect working order.

To establish the stomach and the digestive and nutritive functions in perfect health, there is no medicine so sure and so satisfactory as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, enriches the blood, nourishes the nerves, and regulates the functions of every vital organ of the body.

About twelve years ago I was suddenly taken with a pain in the pit of the stomach which was so violent I could not walk straight," writes O. S. Copenhaver, Esq., of Mount Union, Huntington Co., Pa. (Box 222). "It would grow more severe until I was about six months with but little benefit. I still kept getting weaker I could scarcely walk. I then tried another physician and he told me my liver was out of order and that I had indigestion. He gave me a treatment and I got some better but only for a short time. I then took using several widely advertised patent medicines, but received no more than temporary relief while using. I then tried Dr. Pierce's medicines, using his Golden Medical Discovery, 'Favorite Prescription' and the 'Pleasant Pellets' and in two months time I was feeling better than I had for years before. I can truthfully say Dr. Pierce's medicines did me more good than any I had ever taken."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 100-pages, fully illustrated, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps (cost of mailing only) for post paid copy, or it stamps for edition bound in cloth. Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no person who could have listened to the papers which have been read from this platform during the last three days and doubt for a minute that the object of this gathering was an honest search for truth. [Applause.] I think the country is to be congratulated on some of the papers which were contributed to this discussion; notably those that came from the representatives of labor organizations and of the national grange. [Applause.] Indeed, as I listen to the conceptions of economic law which mark every address to which I listen, delivered by representatives of organized labor, I become convinced that the laborers who spoke to us understood these laws much better than their employers; indeed, I believe that some recent events in our history would have been impossible if both sides of these labor controversies understood the economic laws governing the relation of producers to consumers as well as one side showed that it understood them this very day.

Now, the precise question which we have been called to consider is the effect on the general prosperity of the community of combinations, whether of capital or of labor. I shall define prosperity as an abundance of commodities fairly distributed among those who produce them.

Now, this is not a statement of true conditions, separate and distinct, but rather a statement of two aspects of one difference. For, my friends, I hope to establish before I get through, that there cannot be abundant production of commodities without an extensive distribution of them in the form of wages in a country wherein prosperity is based on freedom. But whether this distribution is as effective and complete as we might wish, we can defer consideration of that question for a moment and we can all agree that there cannot be any distribution if there is not production; and that there cannot be an extensive distribution unless there is an abundant production. We must have commodities to distribute before we can distribute them in the form of wages or of profits. If this definition of prosperity be correct, it is perfectly plain that there is no reason why a sensible man should grow excited, either as to approval or resentment, at a combination, merely as such. A combination may be good or bad, according to its effect.

It will be idle to say that some improve, that some raise prices and some deprecate them, if we did not prescribe some test by which we could distinguish between the two. Now, ladies and gentlemen, I think it is a simple one, perfectly clear. The test is to ascertain whether the combination of capital flourishes through government aid or without it, for, my friends, you must see that any industrial enterprise which dominates the market without aid from the government must do so through cheapening the product, or, as it is commonly called, by under-selling competitors. An industry, to profit, must accomplish that result by increasing the volume of its production. On the other hand, an industry which dominates the market by the favor of government, direct or indirect, cannot, in the nature of things, be forced to cheapen prices, because, if it could dominate the market by under-selling competitors in an open field without favor, it would not need the government favor. The interference of the government would be an injury, and not a benefit to it. An industry, or a combination of capital, or anything you may choose to call it, that dominates a market through a restricted competition that delivers the consumer to it on its own terms necessarily depends upon a narrow output and large profits, extorted, not from the excellence of its service, but from the helplessness of those with whom it deals.

Government Interference.
Now there are three ways in which the government interferes in the trade of individuals in this country, one is by patent laws. . . . The other means by which the government interferes is by tariff. Now, I believe that every person can concede, whether he believes in high tariff or free trade, that so far as trusts are concerned the tariff operates to favor them in this way and in this way only. It operates to restrict competition in the production of any article, to those engaged in it in this country. But if a trust or combination is to be formed, manifestly it aids the enterprise where the field of competition is originally limited. Under a condition of free trade every article which is produced is exposed to the competition of the whole world. If you rely upon the combination to suppress competition manifestly it is easier to make a combination between the producers in one country than in all countries and to that extent the tariff favors.

There is still a third and serious question with which I think we can deal and which I believe is vastly more extensive in its results than this tariff in favor of trusts. And I refer to those favors which are extended to certain industries or great corporations enjoying government franchises, which are none the less government agencies because their stock is owned by private individuals. And here we are face to face with a serious difficulty. First, I must assume it a serious difficulty because it is almost impossible to describe it. It is surrounded by secret. That it is existing and does exist everybody believes. But for the purposes of philosophical discussion it is impossible to try to follow that which you cannot even fully describe, and the worst feature, therefore, of this outrage which is perpetrated against a certain class of the community is that it is shrouded in mystery.

But, my friends, you must remember that no person can enjoy a favor at the hands of any company enjoying a public franchise except at the expense of another. It is true of every instance where government favors an individual. An officer of a corporation granting a special favor to any person who has a right to use that possession on equal terms with everybody else, ought to be held guilty of a serious felony.

No corporation has a right to secrecy in the discharge of its duties. Whenever any person seeks to lure you up a dark alleyway on the pretense that he is going to serve you, do not parlay with him a moment—he is a confidence man. Call a policeman if you want to save your property or your character.

No corporation anxious to perform honest services to the public and its stockholders will seek secrecy or will insist on it.

It is the cloak behind which all frauds are perpetrated.

My friends, these are my suggestions: Publicity for corporate mismanagement; prohibition under penalties for special favors; right of action against any corporation whose service is suspended, except an absolute defense is proved that it was at all times ready to discuss with its employees questions at issue between them, by agencies of their selection.

BURNED TO DEATH
Three Men Cremated in a Freight Wreck in Nebraska.

Nebraska City, Neb., Sept. 16.—A freight train on the Missouri Pacific yesterday ran on a bridge which was on fire, eight miles south of this city. The bridge gave way and the engine, followed by 30 cars, plunged into the ditch. Engineer Gilliam, brakeman Foster and fireman Miller Rouse were burned to death in the wreck.

Vice President Hobart.
New York, Sept. 16.—A special from Long Branch, N. J., to The Press says: Vice President Hobart was expected to leave Norman Hurst, his summer home, yesterday for Paterson, but his health would not permit. The vice president accordingly postponed his departure until next week.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY
One of the Cuban War Heroes Receives an Assignment.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Some time ago Admiral Schley applied to the navy department for sea service. At present he is head of the retiring board. The navy department has now granted the request and has notified him to hold himself in readiness to command the South Atlantic station. The department is about to take steps to make the command commensurate with his rank.

by increasing considerably the number of vessels on the station. The Cincinnati probably will go there. The Detroit is already on her way to join, and the Marblehead is likely to be attached. Altogether there will be five or six ships on the station when the quota is filled.

It is said at the department that with a threatened war in South Africa, which is part of the station, and the disturbed condition in South and Central America, the South Atlantic command is likely to become an important one in the near future.

DREYFUS' APPEAL
To Be Withdrawn From Court of Revision.

London, Sept. 16.—M. De Blowitz, the Paris correspondent of The Times, says: Captain Dreyfus will shortly withdraw his appeal for a revision of the Rennes trial, which will leave the ground clear for the government to take immediate steps to pardon him.

The pardon will not annul the civil and military consequences of the verdict and he will therefore no longer belong to the army.

"There is nothing, however, to prevent him from applying to the court of cassation to quash the Rennes trial whenever the new fact required by law is produced. When liberated he will settle in the south of France, as the members of his family do not wish to expose him to such demonstrations of sympathy abroad as might be used against him by his adversaries at home."

Probably a Deathbed Marriage.
Richmond, Ind., Sept. 16.—Dalls Hicks of Indianapolis, the baggageman who was badly injured in Sunday's wreck, and is now in an alarming condition at St. Stephens' Hospital, this city, has been married to Anna Dryscoll of Indianapolis. The ceremony was performed at the hospital by Rev. A. G. Neal. There is practically no hope of Hicks' recovery. He was a widower. His age is 61, and his wife is about 40.

IMMINENCE OF WAR
London Papers Regard the Transvaal Crisis as Having Reached Acute Stage.

SEVEN-YEAR FRANCHISE
Said to Be Adhered to by the Boers in Their Reply to Chamberlain and Boldly Stand For the London Convention—Military Preparations Continue in South Africa.

London, Sept. 16.—A special dispatch from Pretoria says: "The Transvaal's reply will be on the following lines: The Transvaal adheres to the seven years franchise law, but is willing to consider and, if necessary, to adopt any suggestions Great Britain may make with regard to the working of the law."

"In regard to the other points of Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch, the Transvaal boldly stands by the London convention. It is said that the reply is couched in polite terms."

"State Secretary Reitz, in the course of an interview today, expressed some doubt as to whether any alteration would be made in the existing franchise law, but said he believed a way should and could be found to establish an arbitration court. As to suzerainty, the least said the soonest mended, remarked the state secretary."

In the forecasts of President Kruger's reply there is undoubtedly a large basis of truth which seems to bring the dispute within a measurable distance of war.

Last evening the press association issued a curious statement to the effect that as soon as the garrison in Natal had been sufficiently strengthened, the Transvaal government would be called upon to accept a new convention, already drafted, which, while guaranteeing the integrity of the Transvaal state, provides for the demolition of the forts and limits the armed force of the Transvaal to a number deemed sufficient to maintain internal order.

According to the press association the convention will demand that the diplomatic agencies be suppressed and the judiciary be made independent of the executive.

The morning paper editorials regard the crisis as having reached its most acute phase. The Daily News says: "We refuse to believe that President Kruger is so foolish as to reject Mr. Chamberlain's moderate demands."

The Daily Chronicle, which appeals again to Mr. Kruger, "to accept while it is yet time, and before England's terms become harder," says: "A refusal of the present terms will involve the ruin of the state over which President Kruger presides. The British government have played their first and second moves in the game, and must perform play the third and then the fourth. If Mr. Kruger haggles, the sinister conditions in South Africa will grow worse until a catastrophe is reached."

Other papers talk of the imminence of war, and all the dispatches from South Africa continue to describe the military preparations of both sides.

The Pretoria correspondent of The Times, in his forecast of the Transvaal reply, declares that the Boers will lay stress upon the 7-year franchise law, though offering to consider British suggestions as to its working, and for the rest take their stand upon the London convention.

The Times says: "We cannot believe that President Kruger will reject the latest proposals of the government and we would remind him that even Mr. Morley has intimated the 5-year franchise and urged him to accept the Cape Town conference."

It is understood that a cabinet council will be summoned as soon as the Transvaal's reply is received.

The Pretoria correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, telegraphing yesterday, said: "The situation has become extremely grave. The material changes in the draft of the reply delivered to Mr. Greene today are due to representations from Bloemfontein and the disposition of the volksraad."

Are Repenting.
Manchester, Sept. 16.—The Right Hon. John Morley, Liberal, member of parliament for Montroseburghs, while addressing a peace meeting in this city last night, at which a son of the late John Bright, the distinguished British statesman and friend of peace, presided, was frequently interrupted by cries of "Majuba Hill," and other anti-Boer demonstrations. In retorting to the interruptions, Mr. Morley said: "A year or two ago the United States saw only one aspect of war; what are they doing today? They are repenting. They have their yellow press and we have our yellow press. If I am asked to speak in this hall a year or two later, I shall find those who now oppose me repenting also."

Seven-Year Franchise.
Johannesburg, Sept. 16.—The Eastern Star of Johannesburg asserts that a martial law proclamation is being printed. It is reported here that the reply of the Transvaal government to the British note will suggest a 7-year franchise.

Severe Penalties.
Cape Town, Sept. 16.—The British high commissioner, Sir Alfred Milner, has issued a proclamation prescribing severe penalties for inciting the natives of Basutoland and other districts to rebellion.

WAWASEE COTTAGES
Proposition to Locate a Beer Garden Near the Lake Causes Excitement.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 16.—The cottagers at Lake Wawasee are greatly excited over a proposition to locate a beer garden at the summer resort. Mr. Woffler of Garrett and Mr. Jones of Union City have leased two acres of ground just east of the Jones hotel, and propose to erect thereon a beer garden and the usual accompaniments. This location is so close to the most fashionable cottages that its presence cannot be regarded in any other light than that of a nuisance, and every arrangement is made for a determined fight against the innovation. W. H. Hoops of Chicago, a wealthy cottager, who is leading the opposition fight, is making arrangements for an aggressive campaign.

Rev. R. A. Morrison to Do Missionary Duty in Africa.

Huntington, Ind., Sept. 16.—The board of missions of the radical branch of the United Brethren church has appointed Rev. R. A. Morrison of the College Park church, this city, a missionary to the Imperarr country, in Africa. The center of the district is Danville, near the west coast, 150 miles from Free town. Rev. Morrison will start for his field next month. A week ago the White River conference appointed Rev. Morrison to the pastorate of the College Park church, and he was barely settled in this city. His wife and two children will continue to reside here at least for a year, Mrs. Morrison being a student in the Central college.

PHYSICIANS PUZZLED

Portland, Ind., Sept. 16.—Two cases are puzzling the physicians of this country. Mrs. Isaac Valentine, while picking an apple from a tree on Sunday last, fell, since which time she has been unconscious.

Mrs. Lizzie Spahr, 70 years old, several days ago placed the noon meal on the stove to cook, after which she went to an adjoining room, wrapped a quilt around her and lay down on the floor, becoming unconscious. She remains in that condition.

FALL TRADE
Bradstreet Says General Business Goes Forward at a Good Pace.

New York, Sept. 16.—Bradstreet today says: With comparatively little stock or other speculative activity and with few strong new features presenting themselves, the general business of the country goes forward at a good pace and in unprecedented volume for this period of the year. Fall trade activity would appear to be at its maximum, judging from advices of activity and strength of demand reported alike from western and eastern markets.

Iron and steel are quiet, but very strong at the east. Blast furnace reports show that current consumption and production are not far apart, but production falls to show the expansion looked for, and while current work is at the rate of 14,000,000 tons per year, estimates of the year's production do not run much beyond 18,000,000 tons.

The notable strength of cereals this week is shown in corn, where paucity of old supplies leads to the rumor of a September "squeeze." Little seems to be noted in wheat, though the government report was temporarily stimulating.

Weather conditions are partly responsible for the better demand for butter. Tobacco and hides are scarce and high.

Lumber retains all its old strength, and some new buying is responsible for advanced quotations at several centers. Wool is firm at all and higher at some markets. Woolen goods are strong, though some manufacturers complain that the advance in raw material has outstripped the gain in the manufactured product. A number of mills are reported to have instructed their agents that their order books for spring delivery are filled.

EX-SLAVES

Indianapolis, Sept. 16.—A state convention of former slaves is being held here today. It is convened for the purpose of selecting delegates to a meeting to be held at Nashville, Tenn., which will arrange for the erection of a home for disabled colored people who were once slaves.

Lots of room for all the masses. Seymour welcomes you with pleasure. On the twenty-fifth of September, In this year of ninety-nine We'll unfurl our street fair banner And 'twill wave all 'long the line.

One day since the beginning of the present term of court a case involving the killing of a much respected dog was on trial. The purpose was to establish and fix the responsibility where it belonged, for the dog was highly regarded by his master. When the owner of his late dogship was on the witness stand he was asked to state the kind of a dog this was. "Well," he replied, "he was a hound." "Was he a full-blooded hound?" "No, he was only half hound" the witness said. "Well, what was the other half?" "Why, the other half was just dog."

A few days ago the telephone wires got badly mixed up by some means and for a time there was a great confusion of voices, much to the annoyance of some of the patrons. One of our druggists experienced no little difficulty in taking off orders, as the following copy of one of his efforts will show:

"Ting-a-ling, ting-a-ling ting-a-ling!"

"Hello!"

"Is this — Pharmacy?"

"Yes, m."

"Send me 10 cents worth of quinine, and—"

"Bur-r-r-r."

"Southern Indiana Depot?"

"Yes, what will you have?"

"A box of good liver pills, and—"

"Bur-r-r-r."

"Give me Dick Coals' White office."

"Hello."

"Hello, say that hen you sent me is a rooster and we don't want it."

"Five cents worth of mustard, and—"

"Bur-r-r-r."

"What time does the 8:40 train go?"

"Send me a ton of coal."

"I want a hundred pounds of ice—right away."

"A bottle of cough syrup—"

"Where was the fire last night?"

"Come home at once; the baby has swallowed the stove hook."

"Bur-r-r-r."

"And three seidlitz powders."

"Give me Brownstown."

"Give me Azalia."

A voice: "Say, take this telephone, too, and go to Heltonville with it."

"Did you understand my order, Mr. p?"

"Easily enough; and the goods are already on the way."

"Thanks. Goodbye."

"Goodbye."

And thus it went all day, until late in the afternoon, when it was discovered that one of the main wires had sprung a leak and a large amount of electric fluid had escaped. Coney Heuser soon had the opening repaired and everything has been running smoothly ever since.

It Is Tenacious.

Nothing in the world is more tenacious than newspaper circulation. An old newspaper seldom loses its circulation through competition. If others get circulation, it is usually not at the expense of an old newspaper, but at the expense of the reading public. If they get business, it is not at the expense of an old established paper's rates, but at the expense of business man who pay twice, or something like it, for the same thing, that is for the same or almost the same circulation.—Quebec Daily Telegraph.

Value of Advertising.

The value of newspaper advertising has received a number of striking illustrations in New York during the past half year. An observer notes the fact that three or four dry goods houses went into liquidation in the winter were the only ones of the great department stores that never advertised in the newspapers. On the other hand, the great advertisers have all enjoyed great prosperity, says the Bangor Journal. One of these which it was expected would fail, came out $600,000 ahead on the year's business. Only bold advertising carried it over the rocks which threatened. The results of wise advertising are highly satisfactory to those who spend their money in this way. One New York firm that had a new article to put on the market last winter and spent $100,000 in newspaper advertising reported later that it was compelled to refuse to take any new business. The orders fairly swamped the house, though it had character and ample capital. These instances of business sagacity are well worth the attention of the business world. Intelligent newspaper advertising always brings better returns than any other forms of advertising. Experience has taught all of our most successful merchants that it is necessary to keep in touch with the public, and the only practicable means is the newspaper.—Louisville Dispatch.

Fame Abroad.

This week's issue of the Chicago Dry Goods Reporter gives an extended article on street fairs in general and the Seymour street fair in particular. It is illustrated with five different views that look quite familiar.

There is a view of South Chestnut street, one of Johnson's corn booth, another of the Gold Mine booth, another of the Seymour Furniture Company's building and booth, and of one of the stages. The article on street fairs is taken from George Clark's article published in our street fair book last year. Of the Seymour street fair the Dry Goods Reporter says:

"The Seymour free street fair is quite well known throughout the West on account of the novel and original lines on which it is conducted."

Mistaken Identity.

This morning some bones were found under one of the houses being moved from Cincinnati avenue and for a time it was thought they were part of a human skeleton. But later on closer examination it was found that a man constructed on a frame work built out of such bones would be rather odd in appearance and might be taken for some lower animal, so the idea of a mysterious death was soon abandoned.

Street Fair Wedding.

On Thursday during the street fair a wedding will take place on the stage in front of the House Furnishing Company's store, Frank Voss, manager. Elder Thomas Jones will officiate. Detail report later.

McClure's Magazine for October will be a special Dewey number; and in order that it may be abroad to greet the Admiral at his return home from Manila, it will be published on September 27th, three days earlier than the usual time of issue. It will have a special Dewey cover, drawn by C. L. Hinton and C. D. Graves. It will open with a fine Dewey portrait, and an article by Governor Theodore Roosevelt, explaining, from the author's personal knowledge as Assistant Secretary of the Navy at the time, how Dewey came to be assigned to command the Asiatic Squadron and what the Navy Department hoped for. Another Dewey feature will be an article by Mr. Joseph L. Stickney, describing the Admiral as Mr. Stickney saw him and talked with him almost daily during his recent homeward voyage through the Mediterranean. Mr. Stickney was formerly in the navy himself; he is now a staff correspondent of the Chicago Record, and stood beside Dewey on the bridge of the "Olympia" throughout the fight at Manila Bay.

WINE OF CARDUI
WOMEN WHO WORK

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unft for tireless tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

This property has lately been secured by the Southern Indiana Hotel Co. The old hotel has been demolished and a new one is now in course of erection. This will be a magnificent stone structure with all modern improvements; but will not be ready this season.

There has always been more or less excursion business and parties who go there to enjoy the water. The dance hall, spring house, summer pavilion, bowling alley and club house have been left standing and may be used by excursionists and picnic parties.

To accommodate this business the Southern Indiana Railway will put in rates for excursion parties and picnic parties. It has also arranged special Sunday train schedule, giving patrons along the entire length of the line an opportunity to spend the day at the springs and return home the same evening.
